Barrhaven Community Church

Sunday, January 17th, 2010

Good morning and thanks for “Reconnecting” this morning! Today we continue a series on personal growth called “Travelling Light” - practices that can revolutionize our life and all our relationships. This morning’s topic? “sincerity”

We like Sundays, but we think there’s more. Living Rooms are a chance to explore where faith, life and personal growth connect, as well as a place to build meaningful friendships. They’re back in February - listen for a sneak preview this morning! Think, laugh, listen, question, relate, reconnect.

---

If you would like to stay current as to what’s on at Reconnect, why not get on our email list, by sending an email to our website at info@reconnectbarrhaven.com?

---

New year... new conversation? Be part of our Bible reading blog at www.reconnectbarrhaven.wordpress.com and take the chance to learn and grow alongside friends.

---

Mark your calendar: Sunday January 31st will be our first “re:heat” - where we’ll be having 5 kinds of chili (or more) here at St. Emily’s right after our morning gathering. It’s a great way to get to know people better - signup sheets coming soon!

---

Next week: “Travelling Light” continues with “Sincerity” - let’s reconnect then!

Church you can look forward to.

Love God, help people, build community.

The morning that was: (your notes here)

Theme/section of the Bible read this morning:

Stuff I thought was worth writing down:
